Dear Grower,

We hope you are doing well today!

With harvest right around the corner we are continuing to see increased interest daily on new crop. Buyers are still trying to determine if now is a good time to start purchasing or if they should wait a little longer.

Overall we feel the market is stable and healthy and we will continue to see more demand as long as the political environment continues to show stability.

Please contact your field rep for updated pricing or a more in depth perspective on the market.
